A Message from the 2018 MQHA President

Hi Everyone,

Our winter is growing shorter, daylight is starting to stretch out, and yes, the shedding has begun!

Your Board of Directors and Committees are super busy organizing Equine Review and the MQHA Shows. Lots of new ideas and enthusiasm for 2018, guaranteed to make your “Show Year”, with MQHA fun and rewarding.

2017 was a challenging year, for a lot of us, but we prevailed and brought forth new members/exhibitors, larger than usual classes, and a new sense of community and unity.

I expect, continued growth for 2018 and encourage all Registered Quarter Horse owners to come out and see what MQHA has to offer, both in our Shows and Clinics at Equine Review.

I would like to extend a warm welcome to our newest MQHA Board Members: Stephanie Rafuse, Mikayla Jamieson, Kendra Sampson, Peggy Blackwell, Jason Routledge, and Bonny Conrad.

A special thank you to Samantha Legere, Sam has graciously taken on the role of Show Manager working hard to cut costs on our judges flights and expenses.

We are looking for volunteers for handing out ribbons, trail setup and gate, the more people we have helping the better the show will flow. A couple of hours of your time would be much appreciated.

I’m excited for the 2018 Show Season and look forward to seeing you and your beautiful Quarter Horses in the Show Pen.

Please do not hesitate to contact any of our board members with questions concerning MQHA/AQHA Events and Shows. Come out and support your club, and be Maritime Proud!!!

List of Directors can be found on maritimeqha.com.

Sincerely,

Susan Chestnut
MQHA President

Editor's note

I am very excited to be in charge of the MQHA journal for 2018. I am hoping to add some interesting articles and photos that will get more members and non-members to read and enjoy the journal. This year, I am trying to include some new articles and topics from riders and horsemen/horsewomen in the Maritimes as well as articles that will help us enhance our knowledge and improve our skills. I am looking forward to seeing some new faces in 2018 and hoping that other members will give some feedback on this journal to help make the next one even better!

Sincerely,

Kendra Sampson
Board of Director

A look into a Rookie's first MQHA show

*Grace Nicely describes her first show experience with MQHA showing
"A Custom OHK Krymsun" owned by Mary Powers*

I have been attending MQHA shows since I was 13 and have always had a great time, but had never been a competitor until 2017. Last year is definitely a year to remember because I had an opportunity to show and be a part of the Youth Activities in Sussex and I had a blast.

The first class I was in was a halter class and I was pretty nervous since it was my first time showing. Luckily, I was able to get my nerves under control and the horse performed well. We ended up winning the class and the grin on my face was as big as if I had won a million dollars.

The next day, just an hour before the walk/jog class, I learned that I had been entered. I rushed around trying to find show clothes to fit and what might have been a disappointment turned into a wonderful experience. A friendly group of riders let me try on their chaps and offered me some shirts and I will never forget their generosity. That's probably what I will remember the most about my time in Sussex: the people there were just so supportive and friendly and really made me – a newcomer to showing – feel welcome and supported.

The horse I showed is a One Hot Krymsun mare that has many years of experience in the show pen, and she carried me around the ring like the pro that she is. Once the class finished, I didn't even hear the results because I was so overwhelmed by the support I received and the performance of "Gale". I was just so overjoyed to be participating! Many friendly people congratulated me on my showing, and that just made me so much more welcome and happy to be a part of the showing experience.

Many great people came together to make this experience work for me and I can't say enough to express my gratitude for these supportive folks. I was very nervous about the experience at first because I had never before really associated with the other people who were showing, but as it turned out, I learned lots, met wonderful people and had lots of fun.

I would definitely participate again if I have an opportunity to do so and I would love to be able to show others the generosity and support that was shown to me. I encourage everyone that can have the opportunity to participate to do so – you will be glad that you did!

Remembering our Dear Friend, John Perkins

John Perkins trained and showed horses professionally for 37 years. He had earned the reputation for producing winning riders and show horses in both English and Western events.

John was born in Newtown, N.B. on June 14, 1948 to George and Helen Perkins. Growing up the only boy in his family of 5 children, he helped with the farm work and loved all animals especially horses.

In 1969 John married his first wife Shirley and moved to Moncton where John ran an Irving Station. In 1972 they built a home in Havelock N.B. where he managed the Havelock Irving Station and Mechanic Shop.

In 1971 John bought his first gaming horse Sandy who he showed locally. John's interests then turned to training horses.

John started the horse business Butternut Stables in 1975, building a 4-stall barn in Havelock. In 1978 he expanded into training, boarding and breeding by building a large barn with an indoor arena, housing approximately 20 horses.

In the fall of 1983 John moved to Quispamsis, N.B. where he rented 52 stalls from Northrup Quarter Horses. He continued his boarding, training and breeding program until the fall of 1986 when he bought property in Hampton, N.B. There he built a 32 stall facility, operated John & Wendy Perkins Quarter Horses (Butternut Stables) along with his second wife Wendy and remained until his death on July 22, 2017.

John campaigned horses to obtain Superior Awards in Halter, Western Pleasure and Trail, Register of Merits and AQHA Championships. His students have ranked top ten in the Nation, been Top 10 at Congress and the World Show, have competed on Team Canada for the Youth World Cup and have won many high point awards throughout Florida, New England, Quebec and the Maritimes. John was a long-time member of the AQHA Professional Horseman's Association as well as several other AQHA Affiliates. He was also a Director for MQHA and NBQHBA for many years and was instrumental in developing the Princess Louise Show Park Center in Sussex, N.B. John frequently judged and gave clinics throughout the Maritimes on many disciplines. In 2014 John received the AQHA Professional Horsemen Most Valuable Professional Award Presented by the Maritime Quarter Horse Association.

"John took great pride in his beloved horse farm. Not many people can say they had a job that they loved every day, he so loved raising babies and seeing them go on to succeed in the show pen. He took great pride in his horses and students, from the beginner to the seasoned showman."

His daughter Beth and stepson Jason Routledge showed all their youth years in the Quarter Horse Industry. His son Doug was an avid hockey player, which was John's favorite sport. John also loved playing golf and spending time with his friends and family, especially his 5 grandchildren, Hannah, Ashley, Hali, Brooklyn and Abby. All of John's grandchildren ride and show Quarter Horses to this day.

An Open Letter to “Those People” at Horse Shows

Taken from <https://lifebehindears.wordpress.com/2016/03/02/an-open-letter-to-those-people-at-horse-shows/>

Dear “Those People” at Horse Shows,

You know who you are. It isn't hard to pick you out from the crowds. I see you in the warm up pen. I see you in the bleachers. I see you at the trailers. I even run into you in the hotel lobbies from time to time. In the last few years that I've been around horse shows, I've become pretty good at picking you people out.

I see you, people who work full time and still make it to shows on weekends. You are worn out from a week of balancing responsibilities, yet you've still made time to ride and take care of your horses every day in preparation for this show. I see you sacrificing your hard-earned weekend to spend it on the road doing what you love while you secretly are jealous of the people who just get to do this for a living. I see you sacrificing your much-anticipated paychecks to feed bills, entry fees, and vet visits. I see you telling yourself that it will all be worth it, and I want you to know that it is. Don't let anyone tell you that what you do is only a hobby just because it is what you do on the weekends. You've got more dedication and perseverance than you realize. Don't forget it.

I see you, parents of show kids who dedicate your time, money, and weekends to making a dream come true for your children. I see you keeping track of class orders, wardrobes, and pieces of tack. I see you working as chauffeur, lunch maker, scorekeeper, and videographer. I see you exhausted from the ups and downs of the weekend and still making sure the horses are taken care of and the kids are all accounted for. I see how you want nothing more than for your kids to do well, but don't forget about the memories you get to make with your children during this. It may seem tiresome and expensive now, but you will look back on these times someday and be so grateful for it. Your kids will thank you, too.

I see you, novice and amateur riders who are new to this whole thing and you feel like everyone knows it. I see you trying to navigate your way through the barns looking for wash racks and warm up arenas. I see you trying to figure it all out on your own, but don't be afraid to ask for help. You will thank yourself for meeting people at shows, and you will be amazed at how it will pay off in the end through connections and friendships. Don't let the intimidation of being a beginner keep you from having fun. Your journey is just beginning and you need to be soaking up and enjoying every second of it.

And I see you, show veterans. You've made a name for yourself in the industry and you are pretty much celebrities at shows. I see you sporting your show shirts covered in sponsorship patches. I see you tearing up the Open division on your expensive horses you bred and trained yourself. I also see everyone looking up to you. You are a role model for all of the young and amateur riders. How you handle yourself when you win – and when you lose – will make an impression on everyone who looks up to you. You set the standard for the industry, so the way you walk, talk, and how you treat your horses are important.

So to all of “Those People” at horse shows, keep doing what you're doing.

Sincerely,

The Ones Who Notice

Arrival before this time must be arranged in advance with the show manager.

If a tie still remains, the award will go to the horse with the highest placing under the last judge both horses showed under.
11. High point for Lead Line is based on the exhibitor only. Both rider and horse owner must be MQHA members in good standing for points to count. EXAMPLE: Sally rides Rusty at show # 1, and Snoopy at show # 2, both Rusty & Snoopys owners must be MQHA members, in addition to the exhibitor.

Lunge Line Futurity Guidelines

1. Horses are to be shown in a halter, regular or show type is acceptable.
2. For the lunging demonstration, the only attachment to the halter allowed is the lunge line. The lunge line may not exceed 30' in length, with a snap attached to the halter. The lunge line must hang free from the halter without touching any part of the horse. Lunge whips are permitted.
3. No other equipment is allowed on the horse during the class except for a lead shank during the conformation judging. Mechanical or retractable lunge lines are not allowed.
4. For the conformation inspection, a lead shank such as used in halter or showmanship classes may be exchanged for the lunge line prior to the lunging demonstration.
5. Exhibitors are not to be penalized for using regular halters and plain lunge lines, nor are they to be rewarded for using show halters and plain lunge lines, or show lunge lines. Only movement, manners/expression/way of going, and conformation are being judged. The type of equipment used is not to be a consideration in placing the horse as long as the equipment meets the requirements stated above.

Attire

Conventional Western attire (similar to that worn in Halter or showmanship) is mandatory, except if a prospect is considered to be a Hunter prospect, then conventional English attire is suggested. The type of attire worn by the exhibitor is not to be a consideration in placing the horse as long as the attire meets the requirements stated above.

Gaits Gaits are to be judged according to the rules for Gaits for Western Pleasure and Hunter Under Saddle classes. Conformation & Equipment inspection

Each horse is to be inspected by the judge(s) on conformation, proper equipment and for evidence of abuse or inhumane treatment. It is mandatory that a "trot off" be administered by the judge in the conformation portion of the class prior to lunging. Horses that show evidence of lameness will be excused prior to the lunging demonstration.

When Judges See Things Differently

By Stephanie Lynn on gohorseshow.com

Do you ever wonder how you can receive two firsts and a gate in a class at the horse show? It happens quite commonly, yet always creates a bit of a stir. Most of the time the odd judge is thought to have “missed” something. But more often than not, the odd judge did not miss something, but rather saw something that the others did not.

Riding on both sides of the fence, I have been the odd judge who saw or missed something and the exhibitor whose mistake was seen by one, but not by all. After my initial disappointment of not receiving a clean sweep, I remember the far corner where I had an ugly departure that I thought no one saw and must acknowledge my performance was less than perfect.

Most of the time now, I am the one in the center of the pen who misses or catches – sometimes it makes me the odd judge and sometimes my scores match my peers. Regardless of the outcome, judges mark what they see and what they see influences how they score the performance.

It is not uncommon for judges to place more emphasis on one aspect of a performance over another. For instance, in showmanship, I think the most important part of the performance is tracking and setting your horse up straight in front of the judge. If an exhibitor misses their line and is off, their score is going down on my card.

However, if one judge is sitting three chairs away from the steward who is walking the class, viewing the performance from an angle, they will not be able to see if the exhibitor is getting straight to the steward. Unless the horse is standing sideways, the judge viewing from an angle will not be able to place a great deal of importance on straightness. Lining up in front of the steward is important to me so you will always see me sitting as close to the steward as I can without interfering in the exhibitors’ performance.

It is human nature to remember the good over the bad, the positive aspects over the negative aspects of our performances. Judges’ results and scores reflect their view of a performance from the judges’ unique perspective based on their vast experience. A judge that has experienced a horse trip and fall resulting in an ambulance ride may fault your horse for tripping more than the judge who has never experienced a wreck caused by a horse stumbling.

That is what makes it so dang cool to receive high marks on all the judge’s scorecards. It is truly impressive when an exhibitor can positively impact multiple opinions with one single performance. Keep at it and that exhibitor will be you!

2016 Canadian Bred Horse of the Year

One Hot Krymsun

The Canadian Bred Horse of the Year Award is given to a horse bred within Canada who holds an outstanding national or international performance record that has helped to enhance the reputation and visibility of Canadian bred horses.

The winner for 2016 is One Hot Krymsun, a 1999 16hh brown Quarter Horse stallion bred by Herb Best and foaled at Krymsun Farms in New Glasgow, NS. An American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) All-Time Leading Performance Sire, One Hot Krymsun is out of Krymsun Jet Set, an AQHA Leading Dam.

A champion competitor in his own right, One Hot Krymsun is a three-time AQHA World Champion in Open Western Pleasure, a four-time All American Congress Champion, and a three-time All American Congress Reserve Champion.

As a sire, One Hot Krymsun has a truly incredible record, with a total of over 1,150 registered foals – dubbed ‘Krymsun Kids’ – to his name. To date, his offspring have racked up more than $1.3 million in earnings, over 23,700 AQHA points, 89 Superior Awards, 17 AQHA Champion titles, 1,284 All Around Wins and Reserves, and even an AQHA Superhorse title.

In addition, his list of offspring currently includes 100 World, Congress and National Champions and Reserve Champions across five breeds and three continents. In light of this success, One Hot Krymsun was the number one DQHA (German) Leading Sire for multiple years, and number two on the leaderboard for the AQHA Leading Sire of Open Performance Horses for the past four years.

One Hot Krymsun has helped to put Canada on the map as a producer of world-class horses, and the ‘Krymsun’ name is a familiar sight on the leaderboard at all levels of competition, from local to regional to international. Therefore, EC is thrilled to provide the 2016 Canadian Bred Horse of the Year title to One Hot Krymsun and his breeder, Herb Best of Krymsun Farms.
